A stunning large scale French 19th century Renaissance st. six arm ormolu chandelier. The chandelier with a most impressive bottom central finial amidst a reeded central design. The outer portion leads to fanciful foliate designs. The six arms has two different levels and is decorated by large and richly chased acanthus leaves leading to the pierced saucer and candlecup.

The circular ormolu base has a central interior frosted glass flame. The fixture is held by three chains with a pierced design and loops leading to the top acanthus leaf crown with central finial. With all original gilt throughout.
