An exquisite French early 19th century Louis XVI st. Duchesse Brisée. The three piece seating is raised by elegant fluted circular tapered legs below block rosettes. At the straight frieze is a carved twisted ribbon design repeated on each chair. The two winged chairs have richly carved foliate designs, set within a beaded and molded pattern. At the top crown is a charming pierced foliate carving centered by fine points. Upholstered in a sea foam upholstery. All original gilt.
