A very elegant French early 19th century Louis XVI st. rectangular shaped mahogany and ormolu mounted side table. Raised by four impressive tapering legs with original ormolu sabots and ormolu circular band at the top. The legs are joined by an attractive moulded bottom tier. Above the straight thick apron is a large drawer with a finely chased ormolu keyhole. At the top is a handsome blue Turquin marble surrounded by an important 3/4 ormolu pierced gallery. All original gilt.
