A very high quality pair of French Louis XV st. mid 19th century giltwood armchairs. The armchairs are elegantly raised by cabriole legs with bottom carved acanthus leaves and an open flower at the top. The front scalloped frieze is decorated by burnished 'C' scrolls amidst foliage and richly carved flowers. The two arms, with armrests, have a very attractive mottled design leading to the back with the same mottled design frame. The central top of the back has a wonderful scalloped central reserve with additional richly carved flowers.
