A very attractive French Louis XVI st. 19th century, circa 1880, tulipwood and mahogany inlaid buffet with all original ormolu mounts and gilt. The topie shaped supports with ormolu sabots raise the thick moulded edge mahogany apron. Above are double doors with geometrical designed inlaid doors and curved sides with a central shelf. Two drawers with a sensational Greek key designed ormolu frieze, with impressive flower head ormolu mounts, flanked by curved inlaid drawers with elaborate ormolu handles. At the top is rare beige veined moulded marble
