A sensational and extremely high quality French Louis XVI st. kingwood and ormolu Commode à Vantaux, signed by Francois Linke. The commode is raised by impressive circular tapered legs with ormolu foliate designed sabots. The recessed frieze is richly decorated by an ormolu palmette style band with a central rosette. The two doors have a recessed 'D' shaped parquetry inlay and are adorned with a richly chased ormolu swaging floral garland. The garland is above a central egg and dart circular medallion, with two cornucopias filled with fruits and flowers, a floral wreath, topped by an eternal flame. The two doors open to reveal an interior shelf. The doors are flanked by fluted columns with ormolu chandelles and top acanthus leaves. Above are two drawers decorated by an intertwined floral ormolu band. All below the original and thick Fleur de Pêcher marble top. All original hardware and gilt throughout.
