An elegant and most attractive French 19th century Louis XVI st. Lumachelle de Lourdes marble and ormolu fireplace mantel. The mantel is raised by handsome jambs with a fine mottled design and impressive richly chased ormolu mounts of an elegant tapered reserve with a fine berried laurel wreath tied with a ribbon. Above each jamb are beautiful ormolu rosettes flanking the straight frieze which is centered by an ormolu mount of a family crest with intricately detailed berried laurel branches. Above is the original Lumachelle de Lourdes marble top.
