An elegant French Country Louis XVI st. mid 19th century patinated Deux Corp cabinet vitrine. The cabinet is raised by square tapered fluted legs below a fluted design with chandelles which flank two recessed mottled doors. The doors with circular rosettes at each corner open to reveal a central shelf. The upper portion has two French paned doors which open to four adjustable shelves. The doors are equally flanked by fluted columns leading up to the curved mottled bonnet. On each side are three recessed mottled panels. All original patina throughout.
