A lovely French mid 19th century Louis XV st. patinated off white settee. The settee is raised by cabriole legs with a top carved flower framed within a recessed medallion. The scalloped shaped frieze has central sunflowers flanked by 'C' scrolled acanthus leaves on a lattice designed background. The 'S' scrolled arms, decorated by additional acanthus leaves lead to the back. The upholstered back has a beautiful top crown with richly carved shells flanked by foliage. All original warm patinated finish throughout.
Matching set of four armchairs also available # 9915-9916
