A most elegant and high quality French mid 19th century Louis XVI st. double frame giltwood mirror. The mirror has a very refined egg and dart designed outer border frame while the interior frame has a beaded motif. The bottom two sides are adorned by 'S' scrolled leaves while at each corner of the rectangular frame are foliate crests joining the outer frame to the inner frame. The top is exquisitely decorated by a sensational pierced central reserve of two love birds standing on 'S' scrolled branches ending with richly carved flowers. The two love birds flank a central crest with wings, that signifies freedom, below the eternal flame in an urn. All original gilt and mirror plate.
