A sensational and very high quality French mid 19th century Transitional st. three piece ormolu centerpiece. The centerpiece is raised by an oval mirrored plateau. The plateau has pierced ormolu acanthus leaf supports while the band surrounding the original mirror plate has a berried laurel design. Above is the fanciful oval shaped crystal fitted centerpiece. It is raised similarly to the plateau with acanthus leaves and laurel band. The sides has an intertwined foliate scrolled motif with a variety of leaves. The bowl has two very elegant 'C' scrolled handles. The original crystal fitted interior has a bronze band at the top with handles. All original and exquisite gilt throughout.
