A beautiful pair of French Turn of the Century Louis XVI st. ormolu and silvered bronze Bouillotte lamps. Each lamp is raised by a pierced circular ormolu base with elegant rope designs on a hammered background. At the center is a fine tied band below the striking silvered bronze fut with foliate ormolu mounts. Each of the three arms display most decorative mythological heads adorned with large acanthus leaves and foliate candle cups with grape clusters. With the original adjustable tole metal shade and a fine ormolu arrow and foliate top finial.
