A sensational true pair of Italian 18th century Baroque giltwood and marble four legged consoles. Each console is raised by handsome paw feet with richly carved foliate movements. The elegant S scrolled legs display stunning carvings with etched designs and large impressive foliate and floral carvings. The legs are joined by an exceptional floral stretcher. The majestic pierced frieze displays striking and richly detailed seashell reserves amidst wonderful and extremely decorative scrolls with intricately carved swaging floral garlands. Above each fine mottled giltwood border is the Sarrancolin marble top. All original gilt throughout.
