A very decorative and unique Italian 18th century Louis XVI period blue and ivory patinated console with a Portor marble top. The console is raised by two handsome supports with square bases and tied laurel band, below fluted designs and richly carved floral accents. Above are elegant scrolled designs with carved scale designs below a fluted band. At the straight frieze are striking wonderfully carved interlocking patterns centered by a fine floral rosette and carved floral band. All below a thick Portor marble top. All original patina.
