A sensational and exceptionally well executed Italian 18th century Louis XVI period giltwood and faux painted marble center table. The circular table is raised by impressive square tapered legs finished on all sides with beautiful recessed faux painted Verde Antico marble panels framed in beautiful giltwood borders. The apron displays striking richly carved wrap around foliate bands framing additional faux painted panels and superb block rosette reserves. Above is the stunning masterfully executed faux painted Verde Antico marble top. All original gilt and patina throughout.
