A handsome and very unique Italian 19th century Charles X period Mahogany, Maplewood, and white Carrara marble center table. The circular table is raised by four elegant ball feet below the striking bottom tier decorated with a stunning inlaid lattice design and lovely Maplewood geometric and floral patterns along the side. At the center is the stunning and extremely decorative support with a superb wrap around twisted rope like band, six circular columns each displaying delicate inlaid arched fillets with square capitals and unique pewter inlaid plinths encasing two beautiful finials at the center. The thick apron displays very graceful inlaid Maplewood fillets all below the original white Carrara marble top.
