A charming and wonderfully executed complete set of three Italian 19th century bone, ebonized fruitwood, walnut and rosewood decorative marquetry wall panels. Each rectangular panel displays an ebonized fruit wood mottled border and beautiful rosewood band and background. The central panel displays two hunters, one on a horse with a bow, the other sounding a horn while holding two dogs. An injured boar is in the foreground while a deer is escaping in the background. The two outer panels display a lady riding her horse side saddle with a hawk in her hand, while the other panel depicts a hunter on a horse with a spear and a running dog by his side. Beautiful shading throughout.

Two panels are displayed in portrait/vertical orientation while one is displayed in landscape/Horizontal orientation.
