A remarkable and unique Italian 19th century giltwood Venetian cabinet. The cabinet is raised on topie shaped feet below a moulded concave sided frieze with scrolled carvings. Two paneled doors with original locks at top and bottom open to reveal an interior shelf. Each door has an elaborate carving of 'Arlecchino' - Harlequin figures with scrolled carvings with rosettes at each corner. Each concave side has a central crest with crown all flanked with reeded columns accented with rosettes, topped by carved masquerade masks. The top apron has designs with satin and burnished gilt below the moulded top. All below an impressive Paloma marble.
