A unique and extremely decorative Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated, giltwood and faux painted marble center/dining table. The table is raised by elegant baluster shaped legs with beautiful spiral fluted designs, acanthus leaves and unique pierced scrolled designs with entrelac patterns. The apron displays a striking Les Oves pattern framed within a fine twisted ribbon band and centered by a foliate giltwood reserve also repeated at each side and on the back. Above is a wonderfully executed faux painted Sienna marble top with decorative carved geometric fillets framed within a most decorative green marble border with a mottled edge.
