A handsome and most impressive Italian 19th century Renaissance st. walnut trestle/center table. The table is raised by handsome richly carved paw feet with acanthus leaves below beautiful most decorative scrolled supports each displaying striking lion heads, finely detailed foliate designs and interlocking geometric patterns. Each support is connected by a stretcher decorated with a superb Greek key pattern. The straight frieze displays elegant recessed panels and one central drawer retaining its original hardware below a finely carved wrap around border. The top showcases the beautiful warm walnut grain framed within a unique and most decorative inlaid geometric band. All original warm and rich patina throughout.
