A stunning and extremely decorative Italian early 19th century Venetian st. giltwood mirrored center table. The scallop shaped table is raised by elegant cabriole legs with fine scrolled feet and lovely foliate carvings. Each leg is connected by a most impressive stretcher with exceptional scrolled supports with a mottled design leading to the outstanding richly carved central urn. Above each leg are carved foliate reserves flanking the scallop shaped apron centered by beautiful scrolled foliate movements and striking reserve. Above is the original fitted mirrored top framed within a beautiful uniquely carved beaded border with an exceptional and most decorative scallop shaped movement. All original gilt throughout.
