A stunning Russian mid 19th century Neo-Classical st. crystal and ormolu twelve light chandelier. At the bottom is a circular ormolu gallery within a six sided concave shaped ormolu gallery, from which extend six pairs of scrolled arms, all decorated with teardrop crystals, and accented with six C scrolled crystal feather design elements. At the central fut is a cobalt blue urn topped by a crystal dagger amidst an extremely decorative spray of cut crystals above. At the top crown are two circular ormolu galleries decorated with cut crystals pendants accented with six additional scrolled feather crystal designs. Wonderful proportions with all original gilt.
